What is the role of your BEC?

The Business Enterprise Centre – St George & Sutherland Shire Limited (BEC) is a non-profit organisation dedicated to assisting businesses of all sizes across all industries within our region.

The major role for the Business Enterprise Centre is to provide a one stop shop for local businesses and people wanting to establish a business. As well as providing a complimentary confidential Business Advisory Service the BEC strives to provide support, training and networking opportunities that are affordable and accessible.

Our mission is helping business in the community to prosper and grow.

Your BEC provides the following services to our local business community:-

- ✓ Your BEC is funded by Industry & Investment NSW to provide a Business Advisory Service to businesses located in St George region, Sutherland Shire, Botany and Bankstown Local Government Areas. This complimentary and confidential service is provided by qualified Business Advisors with success and experience and across a range of industry sectors.
- ✓ Growing business through networking and strategic alliances. This BEC recognises the value of networking, referrals and strategic alliances to grow business through sales and management expertise. As such, we offer a range of networking events throughout the year including regular breakfasts, major dinners and industry targeted events such as The China Lunch Room for businesses interested in Trading with China and Fashion Industry events.
- ✓ Affordable Accessible Business Management Workshops including: Sales & Marketing; Management & Leadership; Financial Management; Legal Issues; Record Keeping; Business Development; Web Marketing, Customer Service and Starting a Business.
- ✓ Business Development Expos, Sales Conferences and Events to grow business in our region.
- ✓ Current information and links to federal, state and local government including: Australian Taxation Office, Austrade, IP Australia, AusIndustry, NSW Department of Fair Trading, WorkCover. Referrals to government representatives to assist businesses with specific issues and access government grants
- ✓ A professional referral service and network within the BEC, including Accountants, Solicitors, Insurance, Financial Advisors, Marketers, and Banks.
- ✓ A website which is a community resource for business providing information on business events and activities; a members' referral listing and links (a free listing for members), articles on business development and links to services for business. See www.becsmallbiz.com.au
- ✓ Alliances to grow business – nationally, state-wide and locally.

Why support the BEC through membership?

- ✓ Your membership supports and grows your local BEC to provide more resources to our business community. This, in turn, promotes economic and social welfare and development through local employment, training and growth of our region.
- ✓ A Business Advisory Service to businesses located in St George region, Sutherland Shire, Botany and Bankstown Local Government Areas. You are entitled to 2 initial consultations at no cost. Once becoming a financial member you will receive an additional 5 Business Advisory consultations at no cost.
- ✓ You will receive reduced rates to BEC workshops and events, (approx 20% discount).
- ✓ You will receive 2 x $50 Training Vouchers per year (terms & conditions apply).
- ✓ A listing for your business in the Members' Business Directory on the BEC website. The Business Directory will give you a link direct to your website and your contact details. The BEC website enjoys a very high listing with major search engines.
- ✓ Members are also welcome to submit articles on business related topics, provide details of recent successes using our membership section on our website (<http://www.becsmallbiz.com.au/members/member-articles.html>). As a financial member of the BEC you could be communicating with thousands of potential new customers.
- ✓ Opportunities to use the power of direct marketing to all businesses on our Database (currently over 5,500) or through our website by special offers to BEC businesses <http://www.becsmallbiz.com.au/directory/special-offers.html>. This needs to be a genuine BEC offer and not part of an offer for the wider community. Phone 9545 5900 or email bookings@becsmallbiz.com.au to request the form.
- ✓ Inclusion on BEC Referral Sheet given to all businesses that attend a Business Advisory Service at each of our three locations.
- ✓ Reduced hire rates for Board Room & Training Room usage.
- ✓ Free usage of Interview Room.
